Oakwood Handicap Goes to Ed Cudihee---Drawings Made for Columbia Golf---Griffs Divides

ED CUDIHEE LANDS OAKWOOD HANDICAP

Captures Laurel Feature from Classy Field-Bad Spill Witnessed in Opener.

By GEORGE B. MORRIS. surel, Md., Oct. 2.—An exceller card was run off at the Laurel course today, and while scratches were nu merous, it did not have any material effect on the enthusiasm displayed by the large gathering present. The outstanding feature, the Oakwood Handi-cap, at one mile, sent four horses to face the barrier, N. P. Whitney's Borrow went to the wire at odds-on Borrow went to the wire at odds-on favorite, but Jockey Hanes, who rode Ed Cudibee, stole a lead of half a dozen lengths on the favorite, and won with speed in reserve. Shooting Star was third.

Cudihee, who beat the barrier, sprinted into a long lead rounding the first turn, and Haynes rated him along in front of his field all the way. Borrow moved up stoutly at the stretch turn, and reached the winner's saddle, but faltered badly when Griffith, of the Nationals, presented catching the two leaders, in the initial number, was a shock to his many supporters, but he was for-tunate, inasmuch as Lady Small fell when turning into the stretch, and The latter canceled all his engage- innings, 9 to 7, with Carl Mays push-lin was engaged in an effort to arrange an Army-Navy game on Franklin Field between the football team of the Ambulance Corps at Allentown and the Marines, in place of the West Point-Annapolis game. He was in communication by telephone with Dean McClellan of the University of Pennsylvania. The tentative date of this game is November 16.

Horn Says ---

MEN Don't be foolish and spend $35 or $40 for your suit or overcoat because tailors tell you goods cost 100 per cent more than before the war, and labor 50 per cent

This is true but these tailors do not do the big volume of business that I do, and their overhead expenses are much greater, and they must make it
